

STEPHEN D. MILLER, SR.

MAY 13, 2024

Stephen D. Miller, Sr. passed on Monday, May 13th, 2024, in his home in Cottonwood, Arizona surrounded by loved ones. Steve was born in 1945, a “different time” as they say. Steve devoted his life to helping others as a licensed clinical Social Worker for over 50 years. During his career, he started a men’s group for domestic violence and a private practice all the while providing counseling at family services where he lived in Virginia and Arizona.

Steve and his wife Peggy loved to travel along with enjoying good meals together. He loved discussing sports with his son Steve Jr., hiking in Sedona with his daughter Aileen and playing with his grandson Julian. Steve was an avid rock and gem collector. He displayed kindness to everyone and demonstrated a gentle awareness of people’s struggles in life, providing help through decades of service and giving. He is survived by his wife Peggy, son Steve Jr., daughter Aileen, grandson Julian, sisters Beth and Fran, brothers and sister-in-law Carol & Bob Slatkovsky and Scott Randolph.
